

About The Program

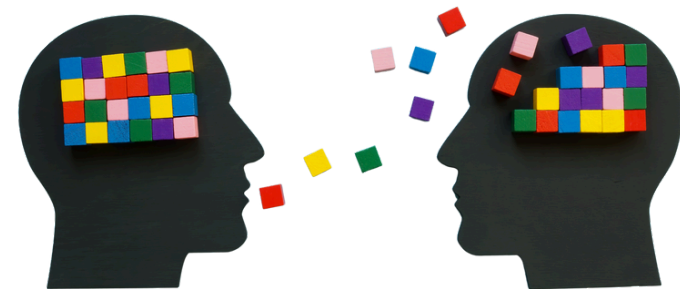

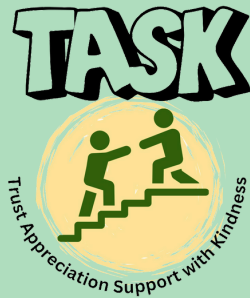

The Douglas County Mentoring Program serves young people from age six through eighteen in one-to-one mentoring relationships.

These relationships cultivate confident, resilient youth by fostering strong 1-1 mentor-mentee bonds that provide unwavering support and guidance. The Program empowers young people to reach their full potential and build fulfilling lives.

Our mentor-mentees spend time together 3-4 times a month for a few hours doing normal everyday activities, like seeing a movie, doing homework, playing games, going out to eat, or just hanging out!
